Nestled on 9+ private acres in Ruckersville, this charming farmhouse, built in 1890, offers a serene escape just minutes from town. Nature enthusiasts will revel in the wooded property's trails and bubbling stream. The interior boasts the character of heart of pine and hardwood floors, lovingly maintained throughout. A versatile flex room, perfect for a home office or playroom, welcomes you. The formal dining room, adorned with a modern farmhouse light fixture and wood stove, leads to a light-filled living room with a newly painted accent wall. The farmhouse kitchen, updated with quartz countertops, painted cabinets, and stainless steel appliances, offers a delightful breakfast bar. A renovated main-level bathroom features all new hardware and LVT flooring. Ascending to the upper level, the primary bedroom beckons with a private balcony and built-in closets. Three additional bedrooms showcase hardwood floors. The renovated full bathroom features a tub/shower combo with new surround and a vanity with an engineered stone top. A detached ADU and new 10' x 20' storage shed, provide ample space for expansion and creative pursuits.
